

The hub of Brookline, Coolidge Corner is the biggest and busiest business district in town. Spreading along Harvard and Beacon Street, the "Corner" is a magnet for both locals and visitors. The Corner boasts a flourishing retail and entertainment district that has a nice mixture of locally owned shops and branches of national chains. Here you will find everything from a cluster of bookstores, to crafts shops with world collection, specialty restaurants, pleasant cafes, a variety of wines, shoes tailored to your needs, clothing shops and the more. The "Corner" is the perfect place to stroll the sidewalks!

Coolidge Corner's most visible landmark, the S.S. Pierce clock tower, is housed in a Tudor style office building, anchoring the Town's major commercial center. Passerby find respite at the Devotion School Playground, straddling Coolidge Corner and nearby JFK Crossing
